

The Gospel of Peace

Words by Donald M. Wilson and Lois J. Wilson

1. If after death to Heav'n we would go,
Just these four things, four things we'd need to know.
The first is that, when all is said and done,
"There is none righteous, no, not one."
2. For when Man first 'gainst God did sin,
He ope'd the gate and let Satan in.
And thus with death were all men shod,
"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God."

REFRAIN:

His heart was broken because of sin,
Yet still He wants us to let Him come in.
Forever in Heaven with Him we could be
And know His love eternally.

3. Before we draw on earth our last breath,
We must learn: "The wages of sin is death."
And thus there is the second point to see:
Apart from God forever we'll be.

However,

4. The third thing God would have us learn:
He wants us not in Hell to burn.
To prove His love He acted thus:
"While we were yet sinners, Christ, Christ died for us."

(REFRAIN)

5. Then God raised Jesus from the grave
So that all sinners might be saved.
The fourth and final thing to see.
To get God's gift of Life (it's free!):
6. If you'll confess your sins to Him
And seek forgiveness for all of them,
Believing God did raise His Son,
You will be saved and your new life begun.
You will be saved and with Him be one.

REFRAIN:

His heart was broken because of sin,
Yet still He wants us to let Him come in.
Forever in Heaven with Him we will be
And know His love eternally.
